Portugals - June 16, 2024, 1:05 am

The reason I will upgrade to Uber is because I can sell premium subscriptions to the forum in a more convenient and cheaper way.

I want to help people get cheaper subscriptions instead of paying a lot of money.

thanks

RangoWorld - June 16, 2024, 1:10 pm

Hey thanks for doing this.

I need my first HF Leet upgrade.

I work in coding and design. Hoping to enter more and participate among high criteria forums and thread. But unfortunately as a regular member right now it limits me.

RoadHouse - June 17, 2024, 2:52 am

If I were picked, I would level this forum UP UP on the following levels. Sharing content that is very rare.

Eligibility Criteria:

For REGULAR MEMBERS who are interested in being upgraded to Leet are eligible!

And also one l33t user who can help out with a better idea for upgrade #1 will get ub3r one year (therefore this upgrade may be earned pretty quickly, first reply with the best idea wins it.

Account created before Jan 1st 2024

At least 25 to 50+ posts (the more active the better!)

Who'll receive each upgrade?: Whatever l33t can help me pick a better idea for Upgrade #1 will receive ub3r upgrade (if they're eligible.)

Upgrade #1 [THIS WILL CHANGE NOW, SINCE HIGH POST COUNT IS != TO HIGH POST QUALITY!] Originally wanted this go to the person who has the highest average posts per year (dividing post count by your account age).

Upgrade #2: will go to the person who has the most genuine reply on why they feel they deserve a free upgrade to l33t. Just a short reply on what you've contributed to the forum/what you will be contributing to the forum. Only need to write two sentences or so, no need for an essay (as an essay basically = chatGPT

Good luck for every one winning, thanx for the reward

Deany - June 17, 2024, 9:44 am

Free ub3r for a year and lets say you'll do a giveaway of accounts worth a total of ~$40 USD? That sounds fair :)!?

Sadly you dont have enough popularity to upgrade to ub3r, you need 50 it says.

Gotchu bro, felt sincere and no bullshit. Upgrading now. Should be l33t in 10-2mins.

Awesome exo , you upgraded RangoWorld ?!

Congratulations!

Yeah, they passed my usual checks, they said thank you before anything which heaps about a person. Also being a regular member is limiting, and working in coding and design can be a good paycheck depending on where you live.

Cool giveaway. This will helps people to more active on forums.
Goodluck for everyone.

thisaintascam - June 19, 2024, 4:28 pm

Would really love the upgrade since I have 4 years on this forum and got some really nice connections from it and would like to continue getting them.

Second reason is I would get more attention for my account shop which I try to get the lowest possible prices so people can enjoy watching a movie, playing a game or just getting some food without paying a fortune for them.

Thanks <3

Sooo... turns out I'm not eligible yet again.

Betty Blue - June 20, 2024, 8:00 am

You should make upgrade #1 a unique challenge that fits with the theme of the forum, but not too difficult. Maybe a riddle or a little HUM contest if it's allowed, would also incentivize people to post to get eggs, maybe a puzzle or small programming challenge.

Thanks and cool contest, would be cool to see something different that's not QL and popularity.

D707 - June 21, 2024, 8:41 pm

Looking to win 'Perm l33t' prize. will sharing more content very often.

Thanks for the giveaway.

It is exactly that, I edited my OP straight away but kept the original plan if no one posted anything good. I included my OP below so you can see what is needed for you to win an ub3r upgrade.

Portugals wins #1 with the condition that they giveaway min $40 USD of products from their store.

Also Portugals it'll be super cool if you can giveaway as many products you can at the price it costs you (no profit on top) As I'll gladly compensate you for any time you spend for the giveaway. As it'll allow more people to be included !! :)

exo

M0rticia - July 24, 2024, 11:42 am

If I could, I would only do giveaways to non-upgraded members(they NEED it) and would even have a banner to that effect - Kinda like a Mr.Beast of Giveaways.

It's a different world when you're upgraded.
