Mostly just Fortnite, COD, and Fall Guys.

Well, real life, where you take a shot of liquor every time somebody dies of course. Haha but on a serious manner of gaming I dig firestorm on Battlefield most of all. CoD hits the arcade style outta the park every time, but Battlefield reigns supreme in terms of realism for 3 thing:

1. Bullet drop
2. Evolving maps/destructible world
3. Dogfights of course

But yeah the editions you're looking for are 1 and V my good sir, other than that I'd say CoD's frantically patching and construction of new game modes are better every time. Can't wait for BO6!

Good game suggestions

Mine would be Apex Legends. Don't play it currently, but I always go back to it here and there for a while and it's the BR game I've had the most fun with by a mile.
