So, which would be the fastest way to do so? Im a software developer, have various money worth tools and courses from here. I was trying the idea of starting a gumroad, offer the courses for a little price and put affiliate marketing to sell, but i had problems getting them. I can also do websites and trying to work with someone to create a CPA landing website

Personally I think there is a lot of money to be made by using social media and some starter-edit skills to make a lot of videos in a short span which you can automate so you upload daily.

Think about all those accounts on instagram that are like "very well I will tell you about XYZ car " those are all automated/ai

My name there is Tin96³sco

However off site communication is not allowed, but we can speak each other when you joined there.

It's doesn't breaks law and guidelines of Hf community.
