Thread: My 1000th Post!

happygonutty - June 26, 2024, 12:19 am

I know this sounds stupid but I have seen others celebrate their 1000th post so why not do the same, I think its not that bad as it ain't harming anyone right?

Just wanna thank this community and all staffs and members for being nice and the website for being an outlet of depression, anxiety and the best place to procrastinate due to its award system. ?

Hope everyone is having a good one right now. And for those suffering from bad things in life or mental illness, I hope you guys can come up with ways similar to how I overcome it on a daily basis. ?

Deany - June 26, 2024, 12:20 am

Been a couple of similar threads in this section recently and that haven't been moved so it's fair for OP to think posting it here is fine honestly. If a staff member thinks it should be moved, they will move it.

Haha yeah, I hope to get it before the purge tho, don't know how it will impact the stars, they will be removed probably. However as I registered in 2018 I'll not be that impacted compared to other members, if I remember well Omni wanted to purge every thread before 2019

Ahh yeah, true. I kind of keep forgetting about the purge. Will be interesting to see just how much he decides to nuke and in turn how much those of us with a larger amount of posts and that have been around a long time are effected.

I don't know if people already suggested it in Omni's thread but would be interesting to get an award such as "Purge Survivor", may also depends on the amount of lost posts, such as 1K, 2K, 5K, ...

Actually this is a good idea much like the decades years award. Everybody from years back and has been active since today totally deserves this.

I guess you have been busy with life too much. I just happen to be here all the time to spend time with everyone in this community and to participate so maybe that's the reason why I got 1k even though you are pretty much an old user than me my friend.

You're welcome fam and yeah just 11 ?

I think 5-6 are main services/exchange offerings I've done or am still doing.

Then the rest except for 1 (which was a gaming thread), were me posting to buy/exchange X thing or something.

Honestly I want to just get those that aren't my major ones junked. Hopefully Omni eventually brings in that option to do so for X amount of bytes.
