Would you solve a murder case or perhaps teach people how to solve world peace?

Put your answers in this thread!

If I was all knowing I would use my knowledge to forget all the things I knew.

Learn to observe ppl reactions & foresee their actions.

Let's roll The Mentalist IRL.

If I was all knowing, I would give people a test to let them prove to me that they are worthy of friendship, even though I already know if they will pass or fail. If they fail, I'll be not very nice to them.
