e-Whoring still a viable option? With verifications on all dating apps etc, it must be much harder to make money?

Bro if you like staring at dudes jerking off all day and night then sure anything is possible if you put the effort in...

ewhoring will never die there's people making 1k+ a day in 2024

Prawnster - June 29, 2024, 1:13 pm

Obviously it's still viable, there are still lonely guys that'll throw money at random women online - If they are stupid enough to do that, they are stupid enough to be convinced that you are actually a woman lmfao.

But I don't understand where you would get these guys? Like what apps/websites? Lots seem to take verification methods before creating a profile ?

Are you e-whoring at the moment? How would you end up staring at guys jerking off unless you had a pretty good virtual camera with merging clips to look like its live?

Most people use dating sites, free traffic sites, social media etc.

You just gotta figure out how to get past verification and then make a bot/get a bot made :).

Hey

What do you mean by get a bot made? as in a fake profile you use?

Do you know what kind of traffic sites or dating apps are being used this day and age?

Bot as in get a piece of software that runs 100s of accounts on dating sites or sites or anything.

Traffic sites and dating apps - all of them.

Don't know if anyone sells them on here, check out the forum and have a look around.

If not, you'll wanna find alternative routes to advertising, or pay someone for "mentoring" if you really dont wanna do any research.
