You're welcome! We can provide X accounts and Reddit by now.

Open for collaboration.

We have been offering the best verified accounts on the market for over 5 years.

Currently, the best for marketers, traffic managers and anyone who needs a lot of traffic, we recommend X and Reddit for advertising. They allocate $200 (X) and $400 (reddit) each in the advertising cabinet for new accounts. But it's not easy to create them. Also, sometimes an ad offer can get rejected (Pending, Halted, etc). That's why we're in the business of creating accounts and better conditions for our peers, so that there's enough traffic for everyone.

We will be glad to provide a welcome bonus to everyone from this forum. Good luck!

Just want to let everyone know this user has some scammer behaviors.

- Refused to use the contract system even after being told it was a rule on HF.
- Claimed to have many reviews outside HF (nobody care bro, you're on HF, not on your dogshit other forum)
- Said he isn't using HF while still using it since several months to promote his services and looking for people to scam
- Went M.I.A right after reading the HF contract, that's very sussy for someone who is acting like a professional merchant.
