Thread: Here is the Trump Shooter

xduplx - July 14, 2024, 1:08 am

New details in as I've been all over this since last night.
His name is Thomas Matthew Crooks, aged 20.

It's odd, last night apparently there were 2 shooters according to witnesses/news, now it seems like only 1?

Huge new update! This seems to be the real Thomas Matthew Crooks.

I blame it on secret service, how a building that close is not covered and there is no snipers on roof. They didn't do their job correctly

It's so inspiring seeing such coordination take place with real immense pressure. Big respect.

Agreed, the risk these people take to protect is amazing, like seeing them rush up and use their own bodies as a human shield to protect Trump, takes some real guts.

Aeowulf - July 14, 2024, 6:09 am

The picture I saw, the dude definitely looked like he had been taken by meth or something. Half his teeth missing, just dirty...

Yeah it's hard to say for definite yet, no news agencies are confirming his picture, we know his name but not any confirmed pictures, hopefully soon

Oh, yeah., I had literally just seen that prior. ?

X going to be making its comeback though. The only place to get fresh details. MSM sucks ass.

Marvelous - July 14, 2024, 8:01 am

Bro got a headshot hitmarker and then got turned on..

Seriously though. He looks like the typical liberal ANTIFA member.. there is no way the CIA or SS didnt know about this.. that roof is the most obvious place in the entire area to take a shot from.. we were an inch away from civil war.

Also if it was a average republican trying to shoot at Biden.. chances are he wouldn't have missed. Lol.

As a British, I am very shocked he managed to climb the roof with a literal rifle and just chill like that, also an audience member who was interviewed on the news said he warned about someone with a rifle on the rooftop and they ignored it, very strange.
