Welcome to HF,

It depends on your skills and what you want to do.

Little to no experience on what ? You need to develop buddy

Otherwise take a look here :

Heyyy. I might have something for you..

If you're interested in making me social media content using content on my site; altbets.io I could offer you lifetime commission.

The content doesn't have to be excellent, just eye catchy. Basically use all the trending sounds ect with our content on site and it should be good.

Thanks!

i hate to break it to you but there's no "easy" way to make money , you either study and develop yourself or get scammed by those influencers in social media who keep saying this "easy money " BS

I offer 10% lifetime commission as a base. Customers buy week/month/year subs so they are always renewing, and you get paid again.

Well if you search for a easy way to make money you are wrong as you cannot make serious money easy

You can make easy money by completing surveys ,get paid to sites ,clicks ads etc but this will not worth your effort as you will make peanuts money

Dive into a serious method like affiliate marketing ,build a youtube channel ,build a blog etc but dont expect to be easy ,if it was easy then majority of people will come to work online
