Thread: Fellow hackers, you are lying to yourselves, and everyone else, and they you.

The Watcher - July 15, 2024, 3:59 am

I don't know if you have ever thought about this... but...

All humans are living in a delusion, like an animal, when it doesn't need to be like that.

Don't you understand that you are lying to everyone else, analyze yourselves, and see.

It's stupid, but you think you're happy, but one day you will be sad, because you will realize what I'm trying to tell you in this post.

I always wanted true hacker friends. People have f*cked me when I'm supposed to be legendary. In everyones eyes.

My life is a lie, how I still feel like I evidently come out on top of the whole world, including all the most powerful celebs, is only down to God.

If you have been following me, and you have any idea of what situation I'm in right now, it's big.

I would like to shed light to you all, especially the loyal to God.

We do not need to respect liars, as they spread lies, and they will burn, and try and inflict their ongoing torment onto others, whether they are in denial they are being tormented, or not.

Is it cool to be stupid? For me, yes. It was. For years. At least, that's how I felt. Because of my own love, and my own knowledge of what people must have known about me. (Government reading my mind)

Anyway, what I'm trying to say is... it's better to be smart. God is intelligence. Is it not better to be like God, than an animal?

Are you going to stay stuck a skid forever, or help me?

If you're American, don't worry, because I am too, and I hope to one day reveal that. But right now there's a war going on and you don't know it. The people you love are laughing at you, not telling you any truth, and you don't care about it.

You should care.

Intelligence. Truth. Reality. Purpose. Progress.

I know you want to go by whatever it is they have shown you of me from my past, but honestly, if you look over the last 8 years of me being aware ANYONE acknowledged me in this life, you will find nothing negative, my life, and my mind, my heart, every heart beat, has been perfect, a perfect representation of a truly good human.

If you don't believe that, why? Are you being dumb on purpose? Fueled by humanistic offense that you need to put me down, in order to feel accepted?

If you people cannot see, I was always accepting you. Right from when I started on computers.

It was you that weren't accepting me, on the internet, or in reality.

Now I'm in a situation where my own family are admittadly (but not saying) they have betrayed me, and had my sperm stolen from mental hospitals, where I masturbated, and now I possibly have 100 children, being molested by great gorillas.

Earth, is it too late for you? Where are the hacker activist people, like Russell Brand?

You disgrace me. Find the truth. You should know enough.
