Thread: The Scrub Tank - \$25 OR MORE - Tell me why you deserve it

Why should I give you $25 OR MORE? Multiple people may be selected. This is not a contest. Give me a reason to invest in you or support your ideas. Lets create something together, I can light the fire and we can both profit.

I don't have many reason but that it would help to acquire some resources that would be beneficial towards creating projects, in return the projects become valuable products or services to fellow members. Reap what you sow.

Tsar - July 15, 2024, 10:04 am

I have 0 good reason, but $25 is $25. Il take it in bytes lmao

Deany - July 15, 2024, 10:05 am

JNath - July 15, 2024, 10:28 am

I'll be real here, I can work on any project(s) you want me to, my meds cost $35/month so $25 will add to it and I'll just pay $10 from my pocket this month if I win the giveaway.

If I win $35 then it would be awesome !

Pr0m3th3us - July 15, 2024, 10:34 am

Antipsychotics for bipolar disorder and I have no coverage, it doesn't work in my country that way. I don't have an insurance right now and I live in southeast Asia.

Net - July 15, 2024, 11:50 am

I am currently in the chapter of my life where I am finally building something. I am trying to get my life to the next level. In the next few years I want to start a family, build a house and start a business, if possible. And for that to happen I need to be 100% focused and be in the zone as much as possible. I am trying to build my portfolio as big as possible and one of my goals in life is to give back to the people that helped me reach where I am.

Also, the wheel on my mouse is broken and honestly I would love it if you would buy a cheap one for me lmao.

I do ask that you show me a picture of the filled med after though (you did supply a photo of the script).

To the rest of you:

Imagine you are on the show Shark Tank. I am looking to invest in people and ideas. I am not trying to buy you a new X because its broken and I am not buying your family dinner because its your birthday.

I'll be trading with it while using precise buying and selling strategies. I'm a crypto investor that likes trading primarily on the Solana chain and I've been profitable.

The idea for a gaming forum

Opening a gaming forum can be an exciting and rewarding endeavor. Here are some reasons why you might consider starting one:

Community Building: Create a space where gamers with similar interests can connect, share experiences, and build friendships. This can foster a sense of belonging and camaraderie.

Knowledge Sharing: Provide a platform for gamers to exchange tips, strategies, and insights about their favorite games. This can help both novice and experienced players improve their skills.

Stay Updated: Keep the community informed about the latest gaming news, updates, and releases. This can make your forum a go-to source for timely and relevant information.

Support and Troubleshooting: Offer a space for gamers to seek help with technical issues, game bugs, or gameplay challenges. Experienced members can provide solutions and advice.

Event Organization: Plan and promote gaming events, tournaments, and meetups. This can enhance engagement and create memorable experiences for the community.

Platform for Reviews and Recommendations: Allow members to share reviews and recommendations for games, hardware, and accessories. This can help others make informed decisions.

Content Creation: Encourage members to share their creative content, such as fan art, mods, and game guides. This can enrich the community and provide diverse content.

Feedback and Suggestions: Collect feedback and suggestions from gamers on various topics, including game development. This can be valuable for developers and publishers.

Monetization Opportunities: Explore potential revenue streams, such as ads, sponsorships, and premium memberships, to sustain and grow the forum.

Passion Project: If you're passionate about gaming, a forum allows you to immerse yourself in the gaming world, share your enthusiasm, and connect with like-minded individuals.

By opening a gaming forum, you can create a vibrant and dynamic community that enhances the gaming experience for everyone involved.

And I will get work too

I'll be honest, my mom and I are looking to purchase private psychotherapy sessions for my brother who is struggling with anxiety, depression and insomnia for years now. The medical care system in our country is not great, and free psychiatrists have been switching between multiple antidepressants and benzos, none of them effective so far. We do our best to support him but he needs professional help, and I believe getting private sessions at a dedicated professional will make a positive change. Things have gotten worse with him the past 6 months and he has mentioned suicide multiple times. To make things worse, he was about to move to a different country to work so he can pay his bills off easier, so he quit his job here. And in between the 2 week gap of his old and new job, he has unluckily broken his leg (fibula) and now he is left without an income until he is able to work again (could take a few months). This brought him down even more and I am scared for his mental health. I have a lot of expenses of my own but I am very determined to get him the private sessions and possibly help him turn his life around.
