Thread: The real truth about the Trump shooter - 10 inch whaa.

Another day, another Thomas Crooks thread (just kidding, but this will be my last)

<https://x.com/CollinRugg/status/1812971491417551282>

Thomas Crooks (Trump shooter) claims to have a 10 inch pe*is. ^^

However, the more it appears like to me, is that Thomas Crooks had severe mental difficulties and in my eyes, could be easily manipulated to act upon something with enough brainwashing, covert classical conditioning and other psychological methods.

Let's all be honest here, he looks like he is very autistic, with some underlying mental disorders, just from the video alone, the slur in his voice, it's fairly obvious to me that he could be vulnerable to exploitation. In no way am I excusing what he did, I think it was an act of evil and I am not justifying in any way, but given what we've seen with the SS (Secret Service) and how normal civilians noticed him with the gun before anything even happened,

I honestly have no doubt with all the experience life has taught me, that this was most definitely some kind of inside job, SS allowed him to get close and wanted Trump to be assassinated, and then follow up with obviously taking him out afterwards, make no mistake about it, there is complete panic right now inside some circles because Trump was 100% meant to be assassinated.

As for all the people believing it's fake, or staged, I seriously suggest you stop thinking everything in a conspiracy. While that sounds very hypocritical, I base my findings on actual evidence and personal experience, you can't fake what happened, simple.

Conclusion: Thomas Crooks was a vulnerable, easy to exploit, and a great target for agencies to use to assassinate Trump and dispose of after, you really think Secret Service didn't notice an autistic near down syndrome kid to be able to climb an opposite roof, be spotted for 10-15 minutes WITH A RIFLE, and not act.
