I'm excited to announce that I graduated with honors! All those late nights and hard work have finally paid off.

DashPHP - July 23, 2024, 10:37 am

That's really good. You should be able to get a nice starting job with that.

Kind of you to provide them congrats, but unfortunately it's not needed as they're just spam posting a bunch of BS threads regarding things that don't actually pertain to their life.
