Thread: What Websites Did You Use Back In The Day To Watch Fucked Up Videos?

Blockonome - July 25, 2024, 1:45 pm

I am pretty sure that most people on HF have seen some fucked up shit online.

I remember there was websites like fuckingshocking and efukt where there was absolutely messed up gore videos and more, but I am pretty sure that they are gone now.

Which websites did you use to use? And do websites like this even still exist or has it been purged from online?

Staff note : 9. No linking to shock sites.

That was the point of shock sites, they were meant to shock the user.

Back in the day there was so much fucked up shit. No one ever really wanted to see it, it just appeared in front of you and by the time you realise what the hell you just saw, you already viewed it.

From Pain Olympics, to Two Guys on Hammer, the level of depravity was unavoidable back on the old net..

Sometimes you'd download shit on P2P apps like skateboarding vids and be greeted with the most horrendous shit (if not infectious).

E.g. Justin Timberlake videos somehow got associated with 9-11 shock videos.. the most fucked up video being the "it's raining men" dub...

I think the last question of the OP was just to trigger a conversation about censorship and the advancement of online systems to filter out the filth.

But overall, I don't know about you, or OP, but I am most definitely grateful to not stumble upon such things as frequently (I don't use social media so I also skip all that easily).

Really the internet is so different now, however at the cost of freedom of speech.

Rotten and Live Leak. Remember the beheading of Nick Berg posted there.

Undead - July 26, 2024, 1:16 am

Back in the day a lot of that stuff used to be in YouTube as well.

Bastille - July 26, 2024, 1:39 am

I remember when I was kid that some mates used to go to websites like that, I've never understood why and I still don't understand why people need to see these videos, I sincerely think that people have to be a bit crazy to take the initiative to view that kind of content and enjoy it or laugh at it.

KeyNoid - July 26, 2024, 1:55 am

Yeah they still exist, just don't search Mr. Hands

Jamika - July 26, 2024, 9:28 am

What is this about? Porn site u mean or what? What is fucked up sites u mean?

oRequiem - July 26, 2024, 3:46 pm

Probably just bestgore honestly. Only alternative is theync.
Not sure how people watch it constantly, it's wild.

Pentatonix - July 26, 2024, 4:48 pm

LiveLeaks and 4Chan.

Lil Buddy - July 27, 2024, 1:48 am

LiveGore is what i always used to use

DashPHP - July 27, 2024, 1:57 am

LiveGore or grossGore i forgot what it was called. They were eventually shut down.

What's that about? Give a brief description...

Purgatory - July 27, 2024, 9:46 am

I mean, I always got my shit from people who already had it. There is a genre of media called "Mondo" typically it refers to a series of clips, pretty sick shit; whether sexual or not, and they take those clips and form what is called a "mixtape."

gets banned

Pkerunknown - July 27, 2024, 1:44 pm

bestgore...4chan... one that i havent seen mentioned that really isnt fucked up ebaumsworld

DemonAsylum - July 29, 2024, 6:50 pm

I'm familiar with what all you're referring to and I had ended up on a couple of those sites a few times when I was a lot younger, but it certainly wasn't anything I checked out a lot or looked forward to doing either lol. As we all know, there was some incredibly fucked up stuff making the rounds back then. I guess there surely still is, but I feel like it was different back in those earlier days of the internet and when we were all much younger.

There is no link buddy :) But hey, nice try! :)

I have never asked anyone to provide a link. Clearly you are just a noob.

I asked people which websites they used, as in back in the day.

I did not ask anyone to provide a link. Learn how to use HF correctly, I hope you get punished for making a false report. Noob.

padrino - August 4, 2024, 4:23 pm

I've always been scared of blood and gore so never partook myself, but I remember all my friends frequenting one called rotten.com

at least I think that's what it was called, it was like 20 years ago now

tonitones - August 4, 2024, 7:20 pm

I forgot what the site was, but I remember watching pain olympics back in the day.

Mr_Kh4os - August 4, 2024, 7:46 pm

Like a lot of other users here rotten and liveleak haha, Twitter/X is pretty much the same thing it really is a lawless land currently.
