Thread: What gives you hope for the future?

For me, it's the fact that I have, atleast thought, to hit rock bottom multiple times only to go through a large series of positive events in the upcoming months. I'm going through a rough patch now and I have that feeling that great things are just around the corner!

Absolutely nothing if i'm perfectly honest.

blackrose_x0x0 - August 2, 2024, 1:41 pm

My ambitions to be honest. I'm incredibly driven to achieve my goals and it pushes me to keep going forward. I used to live a life with zero goals and I never want to be like that again.

Donald J. Trump.

Hoping to get inflation fixed up a bit, and putting a stop to the wars overseas.

The fact that I have accepted not giving a fuck about anything. I do what I want and try to keep it calculated.

But I have 100% purpose in my life right now, which I am going to execute on.

My small family and my kids, they are the power that makes me alive

The fact that I think I'm at the rock bottom right now and there's only a way up for me

I've got a new nephew on the way - that makes me hopeful for the future.

Really all three of these, 100% relate to hitting rock bottom realizing it and seeing the breakthrough and now reaching a stage where I have purpose and actually feel it for once in my lifetime. Part of that purpose has brought me back to being able to learn again too it feels like, it feels so weird to say but like for once I am doing everything I say I want to do and giving it the effort I always knew I could but didn't before if that makes sense and it's working.

Hope you all have a great weekend and if you're feeling down tomorrow is a new day and a new opportunity.

Nothing really... I'm ready to die tomorrow.

I keep hustling and learning only because I want. If it all goes away tomorrow - I really do not care.
