Thread: Have you ever gotten the giggles in an inappropriate place? Where was it?

In an arcade place. Not really inappropriate but I was with all my coworkers. I wasn't planning on getting high before, the arcade place was a spur of the moment thing, so I just went. It was kind of uncomfortable and I left early lol.

Wbu?

I was 18 and tried shrooms at a hotel. I went to adventure around the hotel and left the key in the room. Right when I went to the front desk I got the giggles really bad and couldn't stop laughing as I asked for a replacement key.

yeah in 6th or 7th grade my friends and I couldn't stop laughing in spanish class, to the point where some of us were on the floor laughing in hysterics.

we had to leave the classroom until we could stop laughing.

I have a pretty fucked up one unfortunately, I have a deceased grandfather. I always make jokes about it; i'm sure it's what he would have wanted, he liked that sort of shit. Anyways, I was at his funeral, and a friend of mine came along, and I looked at him as serious as I could, and told him that my grandfather passed away due to a heart attack during intercourse. This poor kid just stared at me like I said the most horrific shit ever and I just couldn't help myself but laugh, I had to leave. Before I get shit on for this, me and my grandfather were really close and we both had an equally fucked up sense of humor.
