Thread: Is CPA / PPD dead?

I don't know anything about this scene really. But I'm really curious if it's a dead thing at this point. This section seems really dead.

Thanks! ?

No, it's not.

I work fulltime in the affiliate industry (adult lead gen). It's most certainly not dead.

Hm, what do you wanna do? ;)

I work with (adult) dating offers through LeadStuff.net.

I wouldn't say it's necessarily dead, as I know some people who are still pushing traffic to their CPA campaigns, but the game has changed a lot. Unless you have good quality traffic, that comes easy, then it's likely not worth your time.. and even if you do have good quality traffic, that comes easy, there are better ways to monetize your money then pushing CPA promotions. I have long retired all my CPA campaigns, and have rerouted the traffic I had going to them to PPS.

I have experience working with CPAlead for years years back,
Need help starting CPA content locking/surveys again....

I am looking for a mentor like you ?

I don't do content locking, so can't really help you with that :-)
