Anyone plan on playing it? Feel free to hmu if you got a code ?

Charlie Sheen - August 15, 2024, 6:18 pm

How do you get a beta code?

I'm sure it just comes with your pre order and also If you have an active xbox game pass subscription. I've not preordered yet because still not sure about how the multiplayer is looking, I'm excited for zombies though however I highly doubt that'll be in the beta :(

You have access to both BETA events if you subscribe to Gamepass Ultimate.

COD NEXT is tomorrow, and then the following day is the early access beta. I'll be on for both!

TooBurnt - August 27, 2024, 1:36 pm

I'm on ps5 cod games still worth playing?

Mystical - August 28, 2024, 8:45 am

Could I get Gamepass Ultimate on PC? Wouldn't mind giving early access a shot!

I love movement but this year's omni movement looks far too wild just image every gunfight you'll be diving and sliding backwards while shooting the enemy who is doing the exact same thing that is nightmare fuel

Interesting. Been playing since the minute of beta launch and have not experienced any issues at all. What y'all downloading it through?

DemonAsylum - August 30, 2024, 12:40 pm

Just installed it and will probably try it out later today. Curious to find out how I feel about it from actually playing.

Badge - August 30, 2024, 12:42 pm

So far, I hate pretty much every map for the most part but I'll keep some hope when they add the next set of maps soon lmao

There is supposed to be 8 maps if I remember correctly. For the beta I mean. Are they not all in right away?

Think there's only 3 maps lmao only played 3 and yeah you're right meant to be 8. I assume maybe when the beta starts on the 6th they will get added!

Gotcha. Yeah that's understandable I guess. I know they normally start the level cap lower than they eventually bring it up to by the end of the beta as well. Then they usually add more modes as the beta goes on too.

Yeah, I know I'm being harsh for an early beta but jheez I always have high expectations for treyarch and I just need to go in with a level head

I'm like the complete opposite now with new CoDs. I go in with either no expectations or more towards the lower side of expectations. They just don't hit for me like they used to, but I think a lot of people that played the earlier games feel that way nowadays. Treyarch is usually putting out the best for what we get from CoD though and this game looks pretty similar to Cold War which was the CoD I most enjoyed in the past however many years so maybe just maybe this will be one I like for at least longer than the last few Imao.

I agree 100% to an extent I think every year after 2016 when IW dropped I just expected the worst, then we got hit with WWII which for me I hated. Take me back to WaW or even bo1 (for zombies) or bo2 for the multiplayer/ranked play and zombies top tier CoD

It's a shame that it took them this long- and, this is what they've come up with. I don't even know who they're trying to appeal anymore. This is largely for most of the shooter multiplayer nowadays though, not exclusive to just black ops. Take Halo, for example. It doesn't give the same feel as with halo 1-3.

I guess I'll just wait for gta 6 ?

Zombies was the main thing I was actually getting excited about for this CoD since they seemed to express us going back to a lot of OG stuff. After seeing some of the gameplay though, granted it was only 1 of the maps, not sure that level of excitement holds up haha. I guess I can't expect them to go fully back to like OG OG, but some of the new age stuff they do with zombies I just don't care for at all.

Yeah I tried to get some of that nostalgia by playing h2m then they wait a day before release (and coincidentally when MWR deal expired) they sent a cease and desist) granted there are still ways to play now but Activision just wants to ruin everyone's fun

Here's hoping GTA 6 bangs, Which I do fully have faith in rockstar for this one their games are elite

Lil Buddy - August 30, 2024, 2:18 pm

Im hoping the zombies is good. I loved Waw and black ops zombies

Black ops 6 real? What's it called the name?

Rin™ - September 5, 2024, 6:36 am

I played the beta, and I enjoyed it more than any of the CODs in the last 3 years. I like the new movement. I haven't experienced any wild movement like you see on YouTube, but so far it has been enjoyable.

Honestly, it's not terrible, but the beta has felt like a CDL tryout every game.
So fucking sweaty.

I can't tell if I like it or hate it.

Movement feels OK.

Cap - September 7, 2024, 11:09 am

I haven't tried it yet, really curious how the omni-movement is going to work with it. I can only imagine how sweaty it'll be.

Lil Buddy - September 7, 2024, 12:04 pm

i sadly cannot get the game working on gamepass on PC. ive tried when they had the beta twice now with the same error. Pretty depressed that i cant even try it out.

didn't plan on playing any it; I feel like they're getting too out of hand with the COD franchise.

DemonAsylum - September 11, 2024, 4:39 am

So everyone that played the beta, what did you all think? Did it sell you on getting the game or did it let you know that it's definitely not gonna be for you lol.

TopM - September 13, 2024, 3:30 pm

Not much of a CoD guy nowadays but did play the last few once they were discounted. I'd say BO6 is a nice mid-point between BO2 and the newer MW games, I certainly enjoyed the MP more than Cold War's, but Cold War's campaign was fun and zombies was a good time.

If they can nail zombies and the campaign I think it has a chance to be one of the better CoDs, if only it wasn't tied to that dogshit launcher with it's impressively shit UI.

DemonAsylum - September 14, 2024, 1:01 pm

(Sep 11, 2024 06:09 PM)Sox Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) MP is sweaty, it's a CDL tryout every game.

I'm still looking forward to Zombies & campaign.

I would not pay $70 outright for it, but since it's all gonna be on Game Pass I'll play.
90% of the time I was on the beta I was like, damn I didn't know we were out here playing for a million dollars LOL. I tip people going that hard if it's fun to them, but fucking hell that's just not the vibe I was in and for a beta no less. So naturally it was kinda whatever to me. Most maps were meh as well. Hoping the other ones on release are better. Zombies I'm so so about after seeing more from the CoD reveal event. Campaign will no doubt be decent. $70 for it, I'm good. Game Pass coming to the rescue though so I can at least play through the campaign, dabble in zombies, and then we'll go from there to see how the full multiplayer experience ends up feeling.
