When I was little, the stupid lie I believed the most was that dreams come true, what's yours?

Dear not as a child but i was told true love exists and that is the biggest lie i was ever led to believe no such thing as true love in this world anymore nobody really cares literally no one these days i even feel like ending my life once and for all i can't fucking take it anymore i am under extreme depression and anxiety i have had enough of it

sorry to vent it out all at your thread dear I just wanted to get this off somewhere and i have nobody to share my pain with

I know its hard but keep your head up man, I've dealt with depression and anxiety before (still deal with them but for the most part just learnt to keep it at a minimum as much as possible) I don't know what you've went through but just keep living to see another day and I see that as a small W. You need to live the lows so you can know the highs in life bro!
