He is selling the domains and the HF crew. A crew is not quite an HF group, but you do have the ability to use your own userbar.

I'm a little bit confused. What's a HF crew? Are there more userbars than groups now? It's been a while since I have been here.

Crews and Cartels are apart of the Hack Game and Hackuman before it was discontinued recently. You can check them out here:

Is the HF crew modifiable upon purchase? Not sure if its more like a crew slot or the crew itself (i.e. can you change name, banner, etc.)

What would even be the going rate for something like this? Can DM if you don't want to reveal.

Yes but it cost bytes to change the name and userbar. There is also a transfer fee.

I am open to offers, I convo'd you what I paid for it.
