Thread: Have you ever fallen asleep in class?

Yes, I was falling asleep a lot in high school, what about you?

Moookie - August 20, 2024, 1:54 pm

I used to smoke before I went to school, and would typically fall asleep once the buzz came down.. which would usually occur in my least favorite class at the time, which was English. I would sleep thru the actual class, but still get all my homework done.. so still managed to pass with a C.

Um I think we all guilty of that

MishaOMBr - August 20, 2024, 2:22 pm

Yes I have a couple of times. Sometimes I'd drink an energy drink in the mornings but that really only makes the problem worse because you crash in the afternoon.

Yes. I used to fall asleep in class all the time. Ecspecially the later days of high school.

I never did but one time... It was cold as foook outside. I was in highschool.

I remember after 3rd hour. It was nice and warm inside and I had a wool hoodie.

I was nice and warm. After 3rd hour. I was soo cozy that I had a panic attack.

I blanked and couldn't remember what class I had for 4th hour. I had like 3 minute panic attack. We had 5 minutes to switch between class. I was late 2 minutes but the teacher didn't care.

I had to look into my backpack and pull out a folder I had and it was the first time I ever did this.

I had to look it up what class and what room. After that episode I never forgot any class.

However, I feel like that school had a carbon monoxide leak. I wasn't the only one that experienced that in that school. Other's have had similar experiences and the school is big and I feel there's a hall way that gets filled up with co2 gas due to a leak that never got detected.

That is as close I got for fallen asleep in class. Other than that .. I never fell asleep in class and it's because there's no way you can without getting in trouble. The teachers always watched everyone to see i they were doing their work.

Use to do this alot in high school because of my sleep apnea sadly.

When I was in high school as a teenager, I worked in a petrol station on a night shift, I'd do 11pm-7am, and then I'd go to school. But no, I never actually fell asleep at school. I basically didn't sleep, effed my sleep pattern for years, but I enjoyed it, night shift is peaceful AF.

Well it was during math class sometimes and I would take a nap after doing homework in study hall. I couldn't really help it since how my life was at the time so I basically only got 4-5 hours of sleep per night.

I remember I used to fall asleep in meetings at work, had to pinch my leg the whole time just to keep my eyes from drooping.

I'm pretty sure they knew I was falling asleep the whole time lmao just sitting there with my eyes closed.

Eran - August 22, 2024, 4:16 am

Nope, never happened here. I have fallen asleep on my work lunch break tho.

How this to because I worked a lot haha

Blockonome - August 23, 2024, 5:35 am

I can fall asleep most places. But yes, I have in fact fallen asleep in class. Not fun.
