I played make believe today like the schizo I am in the convo and I guess some people got pretty mad that I was OBVIOUSLY trolling sent a literal stock image of a phone with monero and asked people if they wanted it and some people took it personally and I guess gave me -10 reputation so that was fun..

Don't worry about this neg rep, if your activity here is HQ and if you don't go against the rules you'll get them back easily.

Think about upgrading your account too, you'll be able to give +rep to other members, and usually members +rep back
