Thread: Are you afraid of lightning?

Actually, I really like lightning and rain when I'm in a cafe or at home, it's great while drinking my hot coffee, but it might not be so good when you're walking outside, would you be scared?

I don't fear the thunder, but being struck by the lightning - THE ZAP - is something to take seriously.

I am more afraid of bright light, than I am afraid of lighting strikes.

No, I always go for a walk outside. It's really exciting... It's like a kind of meditation.
