For any1 reading, if youre looking to buy a flipper to learn hacking, dont. the flipper is just a compact all-in-one of many different tools. A much cheaper alternative would be to buy the tools individually, i.e. IR blaster, RF transceiver, ESP32 for wifi hacking. You can also learn the basics of microcontrollers and DIY your own projects this way. I believe its a better option than buying a $200 dollar device toy.

You can get it at flipper zero's official website

I'll recommend going with the Amazon or the official one, the ones on aliexpress could have stuff inside missing
