Appreciate you hosting this.

Was a pretty standard day for me. Got up a bit earlier than usual to take care of a couple of things, did some work for a while after, made some cajun chicken and rice for dinner, and am now just chilling. Hope everyone had a great day.

Nice contest.

Just woke up and it is raining. Not sure how it is around the world, but here, weather wise, it is the first fall day. Raining and chilly. Just the way I like it. Perfect weather to get some stuff done.

Thanks a lot for hosting this 7, I already repped you in the past but it was a +3 so I changed it to a +4 now :=)

DashPHP - September 12, 2024, 6:16 am

Today's morning was actually lit. Over 10 HF members in convo gave my site a go which ended up being generally positive.

Then I proceeded with my coffee and cold shower and got on with my day. hehe

Day has been pretty good. Watching the second half of the fins & bills game.

7 hope your day was good too

DemonAsylum - September 12, 2024, 7:09 pm

Getting my second entry in now that were on the back end of another day. Nothing too different today from yesterday. Was able to sleep in a bit longer and didn't have to go out which works out as it's a little colder, but I guess I also don't mind the cold much either. In any case, had a nice burger for dinner a while ago and am currently just getting a few miscellaneous things done on the computer while listening to music.

I hope everyone had a great day!
