Thread: [Anime of the year \[2024\]](#)

Syndicate - September 14, 2024, 9:46 pm

Hello all, what do you think anime of the year is going to be this year? I have a top 3 that I want to hear your thoughts on AND what you think is going to get anime of the year.

1. Frieren
2. Solo Leveling
3. Wistoria: Wand and Sword

Which do you think is the best and which do you think will get anime of the year?

TopM - September 15, 2024, 5:28 am

Solo Leveling was pretty hype tbh, looking forward to season 2

Wasn't a huge fan of #1, but 2/3 were great! First episode slow in Solo Leveling but glad I kept going. I think Solo Leveling will win #1 heh.

I mean there's absolutely no argument that AOTY will be anything but Frieren.

It is extremely popular in the US and Japan.

On MAL it sits at rank 1 with a 0.24 point lead, every other top show has a variance of 0.01-0.02.

Any time a new show takes rank 1, basement-dwelling mouthbreathing retard FMAB fans 1-star spam to remove it yet Frieren still sits strong.

Solo Leveling has to be the biggest pile of hype garbage I've watched all year. The story is dog water. I was lead to believe this would be release SAO first few episodes of hype and instead it's a shitty isekai type show. The hype probably comes from all the source material fans. So far Korean Manhwa adaptations have been like Tony Snell vs Jazz for me.

I can't speak on any of the airing shows since I like to binge watch them.

My personal favorite this year is Apothecary Diaries. 10/10 show and I'm very excited for season 2 release in 2025, praying for another 24 ep.

Completely agree with you. The story for Solo Leveling wasn't really all that there. It was kinda lame. But I did enjoy watching it!

I loved solo leveling, story may not be the greatest, and the characters can be cringe but I ended up reading all 8 books, and it really is going to get so much better. I'm hoping they improve it a bit more though.

You retards thought Solo Leveling was good? Don't get me wrong it was entertaining and I look forwards to it? But good/best? It was just a cliché webtoon with a generic story.

I didn't watch much this year besides shitty Isekais though.

It was good, but it absolutely wasn't great. But a lot of people also think that Solo Leveling is also good. The story is just NOT there though.

Which Isekais have you watched? I liked Building my life in another world. It was decent. ?

Solo Leveling is an example of when a fanbase overhypes an anime, even if it's good, so much that when you watch it, it feels underwhelming.

For me, I think Frierien did a great job.

That's exactly the issue. The fight scenes were really good though.

High probability that Frieren will get anime of the year in most polls because it was very well done IMO, and I'm highly anticipating season 2.

I have yet to watch Solo Leveling and Wistoria - I was waiting for both series to be finished. With Fall 2024 anime around the corner, we have Re;Zero and Uzumaki which both have big hype surrounding them, so either of those will be great competitors.

I haven't fully watched Solo Leveling or Wistoria either to be honest. I hate that I have to wait a week for an episode to air and then I forget about it completely. ?

I definitely recommend that you watch it! It's fantastic, emotional, and has a lot of story to it. ?

I haven't even heard of it to be honest ?? I'll definitely take a look into it tho

Frieren without a doubt.

I've watched it twice now and it may just be the best anime I've ever seen.

Infinity. - September 29, 2024, 3:57 pm

Gintama will forever be the best anime irrespective of the year

If I'm being honest I dropped it after episode 7, it got very weird very quickly

Solo Leveling is good my man, I'm on ~140+ chapter and the show has just begun

CyberSex - September 30, 2024, 3:55 pm

I hadn't heard of these animes before, but I would say the top one of the year would have to be Attack on Titan or My Hero!

I hope that the story got better than what the anime is at right now. It's just not fulfilling yet it seems mockerkkin - October 1, 2024, 4:00 am

Frieren is really popular although I didn't watch it I heard that it was pretty good, so probably Frieren will win

Infinity. - October 1, 2024, 4:22 am

Frieren is good, gave it a try. Thanks for the suggestion fren

Solo Leveling for sure.

I've been enjoying Oshi No Ko as well. Binged that anime, waiting on a new season for Solo Leveling and Oshi No Ko now.

Alya sometimes hides her feelings in russian is fantastic too. I hate waiting.
