Major Label Distribution

- Who is this service for?
 1. Artists
 2. Independent Record Labels

Benefits of exclusive music distribution

- IG, FB, Snapchat, Tiktok, Twitter rep for requests and verifications (some requirements)
- Funding
- High likelihood of editorial playlisting
- Dedicated account manager to work with on releases
- Exclusive marketing resources that are not available to the general public

Exclusive Music Marketing:

- You will be given the same marketing resources as artists signed to major record labels. Our team works with many A & B list celebrity musicians, and we have had multiple successful campaigns take a song to Billboard (case studies available).
 - What separates our marketing campaigns?
 - We have access to an elite list of influencer networks with follower amounts in the 100s of millions on platforms such as IG, FB, & TikTok
 - We also work with an official Sony partner ad agency that specializes in “hacking” the algorithm to drive 100,000s of algorithmic streams
 - We have partnerships with many of the top meme page networks to get low pricing for sound placements
 - We have exclusive AI based marketing tools that are not available to the general public
- Do you offer fake streams?
- NO we do not and will never offer fake streams, third party play listing, or anything else in that realm. This is because even if these streams are monetizable, they will attack your algorithm, destroy any chance you have at making it in this industry, and if your goal is to become a major recording artist, then your dreams will quickly be shattered. Labels worth signing with can sniff this out from miles away.

Pricing:

1. Major Label Distribution: $1,500-$6,000
 2. Music Marketing: $3,500+ (This can vary largely depending on your goals)

Is the music marketing just for one artist? If we have multiple flagship artists and want to expand our reach with these flagship artists, would we be able to work with budgets per artists?

We work with several labels and distribution companies. We can handle as many campaigns as you need.

i'd be tempted to try out your service, although it would be nice to have some cheaper packages to test out the waters.
