Thread: Who is ready to grind for the October Award?

Pancake Boat - September 23, 2024, 3:27 pm

Warm up your fingers! This will be a fun ride here on HF.

If I'm correct it will be 700 posts during October this year?

Took me almost a year to recover from last year's grind.

TooBurnt - September 23, 2024, 3:27 pm

700 post in the month of october? For what? That's insane...

You see the pumpkin award? It's a yearly thing on HF.

Epic - September 23, 2024, 3:30 pm

Ayy old account here but planning on being active. We will see if I can hit 700, ha.

So do we need 500 posts or 700? Is there an official announcement for this month?

There is.

Last year was 600, the year before was 500.

I think Omni said last time that he'll increase by 100 posts every year.

And for sure there will be an announcement.

Confound - September 23, 2024, 3:44 pm

If it's 700 posts, damn IDK how the hell I'm going to achieve that. That's 23 posts a day. It's hard to post at that frequency while remaining high quality in the post content. I'll give it a go but can almost guarantee I'll fail lol

Well.. it is a grind, however there will be 10's of new threads in the lounge section every day.

Making sure that the replies are really HQ will be a challenge, but you'll get to experience the "Lounge" at it's core.

I think there were 2 members who got it in 24 hours last year.

Omni stated last year that he would like to add an additional 100 posts each year for the award.

I'm going to have to make 800 post in the month of october? Jesus H. Christ.

It gets crazy busy worth activity typically so it's not too hard to complete. Definitely a challenge but doable.

LMPara - September 23, 2024, 8:06 pm

Lookin forward to trying for this years award. 700 posts in a month is a fuckin loot, but for some reason 23 posts a day doesn't sound too bad tbh. Best way to do it is just keep posting and don't count your posts. Any new thread or reply you think you can make a genuine good response to, do it up!

Yin Yang - September 23, 2024, 8:21 pm

I'm ready. It's always easier at first when the lounge is litty

Purgatory - September 23, 2024, 8:56 pm

I am honestly looking forward to it, the goal doesn't sound to bad once broken down, then again, it will be hard to not dig up old posts Imfao.

Heeeeeeeeelll yeahhhhhh, I have a backup keyboard just in case I break the first one due to overly intensive typing

Made a thread about color's prediction of the pumpkin of 2024 :

Seems like people are expecting a Pink or Green one, black with orange glowing eyes and mouth would be awesome

Ready to grind more bytes, weapons full loaded and waiting

Michael - September 24, 2024, 12:39 am

Yes, in exact one week.
Ready to get that award.

Eran - September 24, 2024, 2:13 am

It's gonna be a peace of cake, finally a new award on my profile.

I know a few members that will reach that amount in a couple of days just by posting on [mention=4873170]'s contest thread, heh.

Mr_Kh4os - September 24, 2024, 6:34 am

It will be time consuming yeah, difficult? I don't think so as there will probably be SO much activity in October.

For an award! I got one for last year. It's the purple/blue pumpkin :D

Omniscient - September 25, 2024, 11:34 am

I think I'm going to do 500 posts but also 25 threads.

Can see it already, mass threads of "what is your favorite song?" "What movies do you like?".

What is your favourite song tho?

Mooooookie - September 27, 2024, 12:26 am

Looking forward to this. This will be my first year participating in trying to get this award. 700 posts seems like an awful lot of typing.. especially when trying to maintain HQ. It's doable though, and we shall achieve it one way or another. Good luck to the rest of your fellas.

It's potentially 500 posts and 25 threads.
