Never heard before, do you have any link like github repo ? is it something you bought ? You said you got this from this platform (Hackforums), can you link the thread where you got it ?

What does this tool do ? Can you provide more info ?

Is it one of these ?

<https://github.com/OpenNaja/cobra-tools>

<https://github.com/ManasHarsh/Cobra>

<https://github.com/PaloAltoNetworks/cobra-tool>

You need to provide more details, we can't read in your mind ..

This is the site: <https://www.exploitcobra.com>

The site was accessible before but currently not available.

I have got his telegram contact (@exploitcobra) when the site was accessible.

He has confirmed that the site is down at the moment, but I can get tools directly from him.

I need to confirm his credibility, if anyone knows about him.

Doesnt look like it.

Please share who gave you this website and contact by posting their username here.

Also, please upload a screenshot on ibb.co or imgur and add spaces between the https:// URL so you can post it.

EDIT: He's selling PDF exploits? LOL these do not exist man. This is a very common scam. Silent .pdf exploits have been extinct since ~2013. There have been Foxit/Acrobat exploits, but MOST .pdfs open in browsers and do not fire .exes. And they are not sold for $175.

Silent .docs have been extinct to the consumer market since ~2019 and have never worked with Office 2022 / Office365

Ok bro.

I will try to trace the post.

though I have not made any transaction with him.

thanks for your help.

Found a cached version on the Wayback Machine.
