Currently looking for a headset that is good for gaming or a great headset all around as my Razor Nari Essentials (Wireless) gave out on me after 4 years.

Always loved the green and black and the brand logo. (all peripherals are razor)

I have heard some of the audio headphones are even better than most the gaming headsets.

I have also heard audio is better with wired head phones compared to wireless.

Was looking into Razer - Kraken V3 Pro HyperSense wireless head phones but seen a lot of reviews for bad connectivity issues, some said they would just disconnect often.

What is yalls take on this and if you have any suggestions I'm all ears.

Also Budget looking around $100-200 USD
