Thread: Anyone play Habbo: Origins?

Death - September 29, 2024, 4:19 am

Anyone remember the game Habbo Hotel? Well Sulake re-released it as it once were from back in the day a couple months ago. I've been playing it daily, but right now the hotel is struggling with the player base. Anyone else play?

I never played habbo whatsoever back in the day. I know it was super popular and one of the big games then, but Runescape had me in too much of a chokehold I guess lmao.

Unfortunately the hype has faded off. I did check it out though.

Never played habbo, but it seems fun whenever I read those 4chan habbo hotel shenanigans.

Try it.

Used to be better back in the day though.

Yeah I used to put Posters in Black and walk around as a Multi colored Dog. Fun times! Haha.

I remember seeing SonicMouse. Back then, Most people's accounts were Jacked, because all the 14 year old kids would backdoor their scripting programs.

Nah not anymore. I was on launch week. You own a casino?

LeetSpeed - October 5, 2024, 8:14 pm

I used to play it back in the day. All I can remember is the cringe of some of the players I've met.

Yeah, I remember a few people taking it a little bit too serious.

Unfortunately not! I don't have the money or the furni to own one! I'm trying to get as much furni as I can atm using giveaways etc because I don't want to spend my own money on the game.
