Yanix - October 1, 2024, 3:36 am

Do we all love coffee? For me Coffee is life!!!

Celebrate October 1st by indulging in the world's most beloved beverage—coffee!

It's a day to not only enjoy your favorite brew but also to support sustainable practices that help coffee farmers worldwide.

I'm curious to know, what's your favorite coffee?

Bumface - October 1, 2024, 3:37 am

No, not everyone loves coffee, but it's a popular drink for many people. Happy Coffee Day!

When I was young I am not into coffee, I just start loving coffee when my wife brings me one cool chocolate coffee and since then I start loving coffee and drink 2-3 times a day ?

Trust - October 1, 2024, 4:12 am

Happy National coffee day!

I shall celebrate by having some coffee this morning. I know, pretty festive of me.

Deany - October 1, 2024, 4:14 am

SuseGD - October 1, 2024, 4:21 am

I usually end up drinking a Monster energy drink personally. I don't drink as much coffee as I used to, but will drink some today to celebrate! I used to drink vanilla Black Rifle Coffee Company literally everyday.

You don't drink enough, honestly.

I expect a picture of a new cup sent to my inbox every hour on the hour from here on out.

Fish - October 1, 2024, 10:39 am

I had no idea was international coffee day! Starbucks should've used it for a promo

Epic - October 1, 2024, 10:44 am

Happy coffee day! My favorites are definitely a latte or a flat white. Right now I'm having a cup of something simple, just some dark roast with a bit of milk.

Not a big coffee guy honestly. Every once in a while I'll be out and feeling in the mood for one, but yeah it's pretty rare. Nonetheless, happy coffee day!

I'm drained asf, not gonna lie haha. Feeling better than I'd expect to given the circumstances though. How goes it on your end?

Not that much for this day, I got a bit occupied but maybe later I will try my best to cope up. I guess 25 threads and 500 posts will takes me 2 to 3 weeks before I finally have it on my account.

You think it will take you that long? I'd expect you to have it knocked out sooner honestly or at least on the shorter side of that duration. Granted idk how busy you are and such of course. There is a fair amount of activity going on at least and that will hopefully continue for the weeks to come.

Aeowulf - October 1, 2024, 7:57 pm

I love my coffee. Even my post workout protein shake is coffee flavored.

I love my coffee too! I'm a fan of coffee + protein shake. Instead of milk I put a bit of a protein shake and its amazing

I will try my best brother to have it on a week but I doubt I can make but still hoping for the best.

Still I can't find the official thread for the Octoberfest award.

Thats because the official thread does not exist yet! Omni said he did not have time to post it today.
It will most likely be posted tomorrow.

I suppose as long as you get it, that's all that matters ?

And yeah idk if Omni will be posting a thread for it. I guess I'd expect him to as why wouldn't he. For now we just know from him saying in convo that progress is counting and that we need 25 threads and 500 posts. The award goal should be actually enables tomorrow so we can see. Then you have to imagine a thread to go with it would be posted.

Once the official thread is up I guess more activities will be coming out and more members will be coming to join the grind for this Octoberfest award.

Definitely is beefed up compared to usual. I'm hoping it will take another noticeable step up following an official thread and such.

Have you got a way how to figure out our activities for a day? I usually use the Hum game before to see how many postings I have made for a day but now it is gone I am lost hahaha

I just check my post history. 25 posts on a day * # of pages in the past 24h to get a rough estimate of where I'm at. This is the best we have until the award tracker officially gets released.

Oh yeah now I got to count how many pages I have have made for today and multiply it with 25 hahaha thanks for the tip ?

Yup! Its more or less easy. You don't even need to count. Just click on the page numbers and see where the posts are more than 24h ago. Whatever page # is is close enough and bing bang boom you have a rough estimate. You're welcome!

But how I wish we could see the official thread and the award progress on the award goal page soon.
