Thread: The Hunter x Hunter manga is back!

Yanix - October 1, 2024, 10:11 pm

Shueisha has officially announced that new chapters will be released starting October 7, 2024.

The news of new chapters coincides with the release of volume 38 on September 4, 2024, which compiled previously serialized chapters into a single volume for the first time.

I wonder how many of you already watched Hunter X Hunter? This is one of my favorite anime.?

Thats so exciting! I haven't watched Hunter X Hunter, but one of my friends recommended it! Might be a good time to start

You will surely love it my bro. My daughter have already watched all of those 6 seasons of Hunter x Hunter and now she's excited what this new season has to offer.

I personally have not watched it, but my friend who is really into anime says it's really good. I might try it out sometime as well.

Will definitely try it out then, probably later this week. Might start on the weekend, so I could possibly start binging a couple episodes.

I only got up to about episode 50 give or take - does it get better after that? I am wanting to finish it that's for sure.

How is it going? Have you seen some episodes of Hunter X Hunter? I am so excited and still waiting on the new season that should be out today or anytime soon on Netflix.

I've been watching That Time I Got Reincarnated As A Slime.

It is pretty good so far. Interesting. Pretty funny. You seen it?
