Thread: Throne and Liberty

I haven't seen a thread about this game yet, so I'm starting one.

The game has been available as Free-to-Play since October 1st on Xbox, PS5, and PC.

I've been looking for a good MMORPG for a while, but I've often been disappointed. I decided to give Throne and Liberty (TL) a try, and after a few hours of playing, I have to say that my first impressions are very positive.

Here are a few things I like: The dialogue is interesting. I usually skip it when it's boring (like in The First Descendant).

The graphics are good.

The animations are smooth.

There are lots of spells, menus, and features (some of you may not like that, but I appreciate it when an MMORPG is complex).

I like the lore, and I enjoy the world.

I've seen a lot of negative reviews, and it seems the game hasn't been a huge success in Korea (where it originated).

I'm looking forward to things like raids and dungeons (I enjoy the multiplayer aspect of MMORPGs, especially when there are multiple players in dungeons).

Is anyone else playing? What are your thoughts on it?

DAMN, I was going to make a thread about this as well! My coworker has told me about it and it looks great!

The game looks alright, I still have to give it a shot.

Some of the cons I've seen are pretty rough though, not gonna lie.

SuseGD - October 2, 2024, 6:06 pm

I have not actually tried it out yet, I've never heard of it. I really enjoy MMORPG games though, so I'll probably check it out sometime when I get a chance.

I have about 10 hours into now and it's not too bad IMO. It's probably just that I suck but I HATE the combat in the game. There's also a million submenus which at times makes it feel like a mobile game. I also have a hard time finding stuff sometimes, but that's probably just my fault. It's something to kill time with though and it is enjoyable for the most part. It scratches the itch I have until New World release on the 15th as well

Mind you share some examples ?

I wanted to try New World when it was released (I guess 2 years ago, something like that) but I've heard lot of bad things about it, did they improve the game ?

Syndicate - October 3, 2024, 12:22 am

I'll definitely keep you updated. I'm going to download it tonight and then I'll update this thread tomorrow :D

I'm trying the game out right now, but on the Steam Reviews.

Currently downloading it, but I'm not really expecting much.. It's a Korean MMO.

The latest Korean/Chinese MMO I've played is Once Human, put 300 hrs into it and the recent update with the new mode Prismverse made he hate the game and its developers. They always go back on their "No P2W" promises.

Am still willing to give it a try.

So, were you able to play since you've downloaded it ?

I've heard about Once Human and I was tempted to play, and also heard about the P2W, someone said something similar about Throne and Liberty, I'm only level 22 so let's see if they're right.

Didn't try the PvP yet, I'm only level 22

Are you affraid to spend too much time on it and feel like it's a waste of time ? haha, I'm saying it because since I passed 30yo when I play video games I literally have the feeling to waste my time

I also dumped in at least 200 hours to Once Human a few weeks ago with some friends. It was a very fun game but I got bored of it I guess and got tired of playing alone. If I wanted to play with friends I would have to change servers are do character creation all over again :/

How is it so far? I've heard it's similar to WoW. Does it have fishing and stuff?

Same here, I like the fact that we can switch our class, from DPS, to TANK, to HEAL, as long as you have the stuff. Yeah you can fish but didn't try for the moment.

However the community sounds kinda rude I think, if you're not a MMORPG player they don't accept you in the group for dungeons, lot of people are in a try hard mode I guess, not easy to find groups for dungeon or raids. The quests are ok, it's not easy to get better stuff tho, the only ways are to do the main campaign or dungeons (but not easy to find groups for dungeons when you're not a try hard player). So most of the time I'm playing alone (ironic for a MMO), but there is a lot of things to do, the map is big, you have daily tasks to do and to gain rewards, so far I enjoy it, I play almost everyday at least 1 or 2 hours

What region do you play on? I'm thinking of downloading it rn (I might have it downloaded already)

I'm playing from EU, there are many servers tho, I think that mine is called "Penitence" but it's maybe full already Yep! Fishing and Cooking!

Acorns - October 21, 2024, 7:42 am

I have been playing this on and off since the free release, currently sat at 2.4k combat power playing ~1-2 hours every few days.

Dungeons are fun but people seem a bit special when doing them..mechanics are basic yet somehow people don't learn..I do stop by and teach players but not sure whats going on with the brains of players (EU Starfall server)

8.5/10 for a free to play game got everything you need tbh

ahw9n2io8wd9h - October 21, 2024, 8:03 am

Played for a while, the grind is too much for me. Couldn't bring myself to play it until endgame content.
