Hello everyone

So u can enter to binance, check the red packet section, u will get a free red packet with up to 100 usd

My luck only got 0.02, but may be u have better luck

Log in and check

Or scan this

QR code is legit, it redirects to Binance, however it could be changed easily ... at least members need to be cautious with this, it's common sense.

For those who want to try it, there is an online tool that reveals the link behind a QRCode

@leet speed@

Dont need to scan if u suspect, just told u to login and try from red packet in binance, indeed i may be scammer anyway

Is verification necessary on binance to get the red packet?
