Are you saving up money for anything special lately? As for me, saving up for anime expo Nov 1st. Going to be insane.

Trying to save up about 50k more so I can buy a house out in the middle of nowhere with about 50-100 acres of land. Tired of dealing with people.

Isn't 50k for a house pretty cheap? Sounds like a good deal nowadays

I live out in the middle of no-where. I've got some money saved up already. A 5 bed 3 bath 2.5k sq ft home on 50 acres would run me about 300-500k out this way.

If it's nice then 50k is nothing for a crib !

Portugals - October 3, 2024, 10:53 am

Saving money to buy a house is still a distant goal.

Paying off debts. Also want to go to Vegas again in the near future, so I was thinking about setting $100 a side each week.

Mooooookie - October 4, 2024, 4:02 am

Currently saving up to upgrade my infrastructure for some of the equipment I use for automation.

With better equipment, I will be able to do much more, which in return will increase my earnings.. so that is the goal. In due time, the upgrade will happen.. if not by the end of the year, then by the first quarter of next year.

That sounds awesome! Anime expos are always a blast. I'm currently saving up for more die-cast car models. There are a few limited editions I've been eyeing. What are you most excited about for the expo?

The closing costs for a new house. I want to move closer to a city and need about $30,000. Should be there soon.

banonkiel - October 8, 2024, 9:24 am

Currently:

- New Chair for my home.
- New Phone.
- New Laptop.
- New Tablet.
- New Headset.
- New Controller(s).
- More Comfortable Keyboard/Mouse.

Some of these I plan to get within next few weeks, some within the next year because they aren't that urgent.

(for example, my current Laptop still does great even for newest releasing games)

Vip?r - October 8, 2024, 9:44 am

A forearm tattoo piece that will cost a few grand

HOMODIN - October 8, 2024, 9:56 am

There's a few things on my shopping list actually:

- House
- Improvements and upgrades to my current flat (owned, not rented)
- Larger boat (will put the current one for sale after the winter)
- Car repairs and upgrades

If you think about it, not really.

As I said, some of those things I plan to get within the next few weeks, some within the next 12 months.

For example, my current phone is just fine but battery degraded, I plan to send it a professional for battery replacement, cleaning and replacing the screen protection.

I could buy the new phone before that, but I'm planning to do so nonetheless since I don't throw things away.

I will either keep using it (maybe dedicate it just for work).

If I absolutely don't need it (which is probable when I get the tablet), I will either sell it to get some money back from it or give it away to someone who is in more need.

Yin Yang - October 8, 2024, 10:45 am

Eran - October 8, 2024, 11:25 am

For a new car, well I'm putting it in crypto, I hope to get some nice 6 months gains

Aeowulf - October 8, 2024, 11:57 am

We aren't really saving up for anything atm. We have a little bit of money at the moment but I cam trying to keep on top of the savings account so that we don't start dipping into it too much.

Mooooookie - October 11, 2024, 9:59 pm

Not necessarily saving up specifically for this, but I am putting away some money for what should be another vehicle for next year 2025.

Jake Johnson - October 19, 2024, 6:59 am

I'm saving up to buy parts to build my first custom gaming PC. Had a custom PC I paid to have be built a few years ago that had a shitty graphics card in it. Should have kept it and just upgraded the card but I wasn't gaming much at the time so I sold it. Will be fun to try and build my own PC though.
