Thread: How many events have you participated in on HF?

Purgatory - October 3, 2024, 9:26 am

This Octoberfest will be my first besides the August drawing. I hope to be apart of more as this has been an extremely fun and interesting experience on HF and wish all of you the best of luck on attaining your awards!

Deany - October 3, 2024, 9:28 am

Did all of them so far, wasn't really planning on doing this one but here I am.

Epic - October 3, 2024, 9:32 am

This years October fest will be my first event, since I have basically been inactive for the last 10 years, lol. But I've been having fun talking with everyone so far in these October fest threads. Hoping to get the pumpkin and lounge head by the end of the month.

Well, I already have it 100% in the awards goal page. However, it isn't counting my posts and threads properly. I am doing 58 more posts to see if it will count Imfao. I am way past the 600 post mark hahaha

Yea, I agree. I only came back to the site a week or two before octoberfest started, so it's been a real fun reintroduction.

Don't have motivation for the current event either, I probably have less than 20 posts since it started.

You can do it bro! Join the party. Everyone is having fun. I just came back to the site myself, already 20% of the way to the award in just 3 days. I think making 30 quality thread topics is the most difficult part cause there are plenty of threads to reply to for the 600 posts.

You also have to make threads? Wasn't aware, thought it was just 700 posts.

We've done a shit ton of events on HF. Octoberfest you just see all the broke bois post to get the award, then they go ghost and pretend like the site is dead rest of the year.

LMAO I can understand why though, I am a broke boi

SuseGD - October 3, 2024, 3:45 pm

This Octoberfest event is actually my first ever event on HF! It's pretty nice to see the community active, and it's always enjoyable to have a conversation with other members.

Mooooookie - October 4, 2024, 4:26 am

Octoberfest will be my first actual event that I've participated in. Well, I dunno if you consider the big contest that gave the Horse Shoes and Satoshis an event.. because if so, that would be my first event on HF. I actually enjoy these different events, it brings more life to the forum.

It seems I missed out on one of the pumpkins. And the other one I remember that wasn't the pumpkin award I ended up winning $250 from Omni that he gave me as Amazon vouchers.

I'm really not sure if there were a couple of others, but since 2021 I have taken part in events on HF whenever I actually saw them. Something or other must have been distracting in my life with the pumpkin I didn't try for.

Yin Yang - October 7, 2024, 3:58 am

A handful I'd say. Not as much as I would like

I participated in the 2022 Octoberfest, but missed the year before as well as the year after.
