Thread: Whats your favorite childhood game, and have you played it as an adult?

Prawnster - October 5, 2024, 11:46 am

Mine was MW2 like the old one and I still play it from time to time, absolutely my favourite game - Either MW2 or MW3.

I also use to play a game called "Pikmin" on the game cube back in the day which was a great little game haha.

Epic - October 5, 2024, 11:49 am

My favorites are Halo 3, Runescape and Rollercoaster Tycoon. I still play all three at least a couple times a year. Maybe throw Pokémon fire red/leaf green in there as well.

Oh tbf the Halo games were another love of mine haha.

Think Halo 3 I played a decent amount of but Halo Reach was the one that me and all my mates use to jump on and play forge mode and just fight eachother in big ass bases n shit ?

Battlefield 3/4, I still consider BF4 to be the best one. That was the most fun I've had playing an online game.

I did play it again a while back when some people modded BF3 with venice unleashed and made the servers 124 tickrate with around 100 players.

You can check it out here

<https://veniceunleashed.net/>

<https://bf3reality.com/servers/> (Best mod to be made using venice unleashed)

Unfortunately it's dead now, but there were plenty of servers when it first released.

Currently waiting on <https://warsaw-revamped.com/> for BF4, but it'll probably be a very long time before it's usable.

Oh that's pretty cool! Nice going, I use to love BF3 and BF4 as well tbh.

Probably Halo 3 purely from the Forge mode I can't think of a more creative period of time we will never see/feel that experience again unfortunately.

Haha I think I've played unreal tournament when I was much younger, I believe it was one of the un-blocked games at my school that we could all get on hahaha.

Radi - October 9, 2024, 4:09 pm

I would say Runescape which i dabble in from time to time and WoW otherwise all the older COD's and Halo I've not visited in years and probably doesn't have enough people to be able to play comfortably. A lot of the old games have become more or less microtransaction havens not all but most have.

Old games are great, some of the new games just don't feel the same but that might just be because I have happy memories from the old games from when I was a kid haha.

GunZ, played it for over a decade but I think I'm officially done with it now. Don't want to game while my life is a mess.

Skull Monkeys. I recently played it again for that nostalgia.

albanmaniac - September 6, 2025, 5:58 am

GTA San Andreas... I'd be wild if I didn't play this as an adult, lots of memories and one of the best plots in gaming history (ex aequo with GTA IV) ?

Stronghold - Stronghold Crusader - Red Alert - Red Alert II - Red Alert Yuri Revenge

"RTS" as a genre is less popular now because people don't like repeating the same things over and over.

Games that have RTS now have thought of "workarounds" to that to make people less likely to get bored from doing same things over and over.

Also yes, I've played Stronghold and Stronghold Crusader.
Their Definitive editions as well.

Absolutely loved them and still do.

Calibur - September 21, 2025, 4:30 am

Rose Online, Flyff, and most especially Soldier Front. Tried them all again and em so washed out af it's sad but the memories what makes it great.

Alpharius Omegon - September 21, 2025, 1:54 pm

Stronghold Crusaders and Halo is a nostalgia trip forever.

bot1044net - September 22, 2025, 1:40 am minecraft was my favorite game, ran my own server but its not running now maybe i should find the old server again

XavierFaux - September 22, 2025, 9:59 am

My all-time favorite game in my heart has always been Sonic the Hedgehog 2 for genesis. Haven't played it recently, but maybe I should.

In regards to just childhood games I've played, I remember vividly playing those early childhood games like Putt-putt which I've actually played recently re-purchasing it on steam. It was such a nostalgia trip I let my friends play it with me and it just brought me back.

DemonAsylum - October 1, 2025, 4:47 pm

Oh man, so many I could mention and from multiple systems. Goldeneye, Ocarina of Time, and Donkey Kong 64 from Nintendo 64. Gauntlet, SSX Tricky, and Final Fantasy X from PS2. Old School RuneScape and Diablo 2 from PC. Definitely have more, but those are some of the first that come to mind. Some have ports / remasters and that I've played, some I haven't played since I was a kid. Best believe I'll always have great memories for them all though.

Charlie Sheen - October 22, 2025, 6:19 pm

As a child? Super Mario, Mortal Kombat, Street Fighter 2. I can't play them anymore.
