I personally don't actually eat ice cream all that often, but if I do, my go-to pick is definitely rocky road. Standard chocolate is pretty good, too, but if given a choice, I'd prefer rocky road over anything else. How about you, what's your favorite?

Wow, it's been a while since I ate an ice cream, however there is what we call "Italian ice cream" it's really good, I used to take vanilla flavored ones

I don't eat ice cream very often. But praline, strawberry, or vanilla are definitely my favorites.

Rocky road and chocolate are tasty as well.

Chocolate chip or Oreo mint

Ice cream is pretty lack luster to me, whenever I go with the kids I usually don't get it myself or a small serving of cookie dough. Just not an ice cream guy.

The flavor of cheesecake ice cream is amazing.

It's incredibly delicious!

Rocky road is pretty good, but I am never opposed to just chocolate haha.
