There should be a ton of people who will love this free resource.

Even in 2024, I still often see members asking about both free & paid packs.

For sure man. These are just normal packs anyways. If you want specialize and complete full set packs. I usually sell them. I made them too.

But yea I got a lot of left over ones that I'll just give away here. Deleting them would be a waste of my effort and time that I collect them in the past back in the old ewhoring days of HF and era and all.

I feel like there was a huge resurgence in eWhoring due to everything that happened in 2020.

Yea the ewhoring field everything legit changed from omegle / criaglist to now AI based ewhoring , girl face swapping packs and all. Like legit evolution you know. But its just aint fund anymore honestly. I like the skype cam show + kik + snapchat era than OFM and AI based now.

Yeah, the oldschool days of eWhoring are long over. The wave now is all centered around OFM/OFA from what I see.

Discord plays a large part as well now, I'm sure Telegram too. Resource servers, paid servers, etc.. Not to mention all the teenagers thinking their pimps now because they're managing a few girls OF pages lol.

But honestly. Sex always sells don't matter the era or technology in the end of the day.

And it always will, absolutely. I mean, why do you think there's so many songs (especially in rap) with the lyrics "sex sells" lol.

Also, speaking on what makes stuff sell -- your signature has literally always caught my eye. I think it's cause it still has that old school 2011-2015 thread design feel to it. I've always liked seeing it, only if you had a matching thread design.
