Thread: Convo improvement suggestion thread | Share your ideas here & Make Convo Great Again!

Cooligan - October 6, 2024, 3:07 pm

Latest update: 10/21/24

Just as the title states, this thread can act as a suggestion box for new HF Convo features, bug fixes, overall improvements, and more.

Most recent Convo improvements:

„1" Omniscient creating the "new thread notification"

„2" Omniscient making the new gradient usernames work in Convo

„3" source creating his Convo AI bot that now produces both text replies & image generation
????-? type "/commands" to list all available AI commands

„4" Omniscient fixed member tagging in Convo. We can now tag users with punctuation touching the mention @@'s.

????-? Omniscient has also fixed tagging N 's username! HF's one and only single character username

Let's keep growing this list and make HF Convo the best it can be!

"„3" source creating his Convo AI bot that now produces both text replies & image generation
????-? type "/commands" to list all available AI commands"

FYI This only works when im online and in the convo room.

Available Commands:

/ai [prompt] - Ask the AI for any information or assistance

/yt [search term] - Search YouTube for videos (15 seconds cooldown)

/sports [nfl/nba/mlb/nhl] - Get recent sports data

/commands - List all available commands

The YT one is great, we tested out /image earlier and that proved to be fun as well. Although the image api is not free, the rest is running on google gemini free api and youtube v3 data api free

Great thread.

Got a shit ton of ideas gonna brainstorm and come back to this.

Bastille - October 7, 2024, 1:21 am

That's good to see so many improvements on HF, I can't wait to test the source AI, can I ask you what it relies on, ChaptGPT ? Is it censored as well ?

I'd be interested in seeing your code for the AI integration.

Sent you a PM of the entire script for /sports , /yt and /ai

We wanna more efforts to increase hf total activity as total and so convo increase then

One suggestion I have for Convo's is the mobile responsiveness.

It can be a struggle to use as it doesn't auto-scroll the chat when a new message comes in and sometimes you can't scroll down without refreshing.

I wish Nachfolger would help me fix that. It's annoying.

I would like mentions to work like they do on the main forum. Right now, if anything is touching the mention, it doesn't work.

Example: @taggeduser@ would work but not @taggeduser@. or sdfsd@taggeduser@

It would be cool if there was a responsive option for tagging ie; you start typing @Tru and the usernames start showing below

Wait, don't they still not work if characters are touching the @@'s on the forum?

Testing this with a period, Trust.

edit: Lmao how did I not know this was fixed ?

Actually it should work with the period on the end. I fixed that a while ago.

EDIT: yeah worked, I don't see why sdfsd@trust@ should be a valid tag.

That was a poor example, but you get what I mean.

Yes, it works in the forum proper, but not convo. See below:

Oh, I don't believe at the time I applied my fix to Convo. These run on different system. I didn't do @n@ either in Convo, also doesn't work.

Omniscient - October 10, 2024, 1:10 pm

I have now fixed it in Convo that an ending punctuation after the ending @ will work. I also fixed @N@ pretty sure he'll be pleased.

I'll add this to the OP ?

Definitely a very helpful fix for Convo.

DashPHP - October 21, 2024, 6:51 am

Fantastic thread.

Maybe being able to earn a small random amount of bytes for convo activity. Something like a 2% chance per non-consecutive message kinda thing?

That be cool.

Anything to help incentivize members to be more active is a good suggestion imo.

Maybe a Bytes award for /flipping a certain amount within 24 hours? ?

Randomised rewards for flipping is good but it will introduce spamming of flips. I know you can hide it but I prefer to unhide as the flow is reasonable.

SwimmingPool - October 21, 2024, 4:46 pm

maybe allow emotes? Like a txt message or imessage? Thought this should already be a thing lol

There already is the option for emojis:

- If you're on Windows, click WIN + .
- If on Mac, click CTRL + CMD + Space

Syndicate - October 30, 2024, 4:42 pm

Maybe some emojis for convo? I know that HFX has emojis for convo but they don't really work.

We trying react to peoples stuff.

ESPECIALLY THE CLOWN EMOJI
yooo also maybe a reply feature? Similar to Discord/TG replies

Sorry this isn't a direct suggestion for Convo itself...

Omniscient Can we get an award goal for Convo /flip?.

Maybe count it by amount of bytes flipped or amount of bytes earned by flipping or amount of bytes lost by flipping lol.

Tyr - November 1, 2024, 9:19 pm

Why can't we just come up with some type of way to encourage users to join the room for x amount of time (maybe a tiny byte award? idk) and log their messages then run it through a GPT then apply certain restrictions or timeouts based on applied behavioral analysis to filter out those who are either inactive or attempting to grieve the room

I don't really understand this ramble.

I am not going to provide a byte award for Convo activity. It would be very easily manipulated with scripts. And you make "run it through GPT then apply..." sound so easy. It's not easy to just do these magical ideas which you think helps activity.

Understandable. Sorry I was up very late when I wrote that. ?

Better yet, add them to thread posts too.

I think we'd all love nothing more than to be able to clown react someones post.

Jamika - November 3, 2024, 2:55 pm

We can add /borrow , so get certain bytes , if u didnt pay back with interest u get -ve balance

It would definitely be fun to have that, but I've always felt like adding more types of post reactions would take away from actual post activity.

lirc, pretty sure that's why Omni didn't want to add "Likes" to posts back in the day.

And why I still don't want reactions on posts. We have the QL, that's enough.

No, you may not have edit or delete in messages for Convo.
