Let's see how I go. I'm a patient man with a very easy teansaction.

Chrome is Group Ownership Approved

They have a previously active account that's now closed (inactivity) and OP wishes to use new account over recovering the old account. No red flags on the old account so when asked about GoA, I had no reason to deny.

Good luck.

That's great news! It is always a joy to see new group owners emerge on to the forum. Chrome Good luck on your hunt for a group and we are all looking forward to the positive impact to the forum you mentioned in your thread. <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6281652>

What are your plans for a new group if you're willing to share?

Hey mate, yeah it will be good. Just gotta get my hands on a group first. I have tried to reach out to the owner of subbcus.

Neal Caffrey - October 7, 2024, 8:11 pm

I own two groups and would be willing to part with one if offered the right price ;)

Mooooookie - October 8, 2024, 2:39 am

I believe there was/is someone that is currently leasing their group to anyone that is interested. I forgot which member it was/which group, but I'm sure if you search the group discussions, that you will find the thread.

I'm not interested in leasing a group....I want to buy a group.

He also mentioned that he would entertain lease-to-buy if the person was using the group for something substantial.

Hey, thanks for the reference! That'd actually be me who's trying to lease out my group, the Olympians.

I'm guessing he wouldn't want to pay the full buy-out price (if i sold the olympians, it'd be for over 4-5k, or else i'm willing to just hold onto it).

I'm willing to do leases because it's more of a low risk, high reward opportunity for someone. I'm flexible on whatever time table that may be (for leasing) & always would love to have the option to renew.

As for @Op, leasing would essentially be owning the group (off paper).

My other group, Benevolence (@trust@ is the current owner/leaser of the group) went through the same process of leasing. I'm sure he can attest that i'm very chill with giving you the freedom to change the group in any way you want.

Other than that, there's a few groups for sale, succubus being one of them.

Hi Neil,

Fair enough. You're right, I wont pay 4-5k for a group. At that point I would just buy one throug Omni.

I don't believe he is selling groups anymore.

I think it's a buy off the market kinda thing now.

You don't think who is selling groups? Omni? He definitely is.

Update: So owner of Succubus is dreaming and wants $6000 for their group. I have a budget of $2000 if anyone wants to sell. Looks like there's nothing out there at the moment but if an owner is considering selling PM me as I can make payment and organise transfer within a few days.

That's not so nice of you to say, considering the fact, that I myself have paid over 5.000$, so I have literally put my money where my mouth is.

I don't like your attitude. Good luck however.

Yin Yang - October 11, 2024, 11:32 am

Congrats on being approved & best of luck to you!

IF omni is selling groups, ask him?

Sorry mate, I don't mean to offend. I just don't think any groups are worth even close to that amount. I'm also not fussed if it's a "good group" or "bad group" as it will be rebranded and gutted anyway.

Because he will sell me a group for 5k. I don't want to spend that much. I'll just play the waiting game. If it happens it happens.

Hey man,

If you're ever up for the lease -> buy option, that's always a possibility as well. It basically gives you an out if you never want to not own a group either.

Hey Neil, just looking to buy a group outright. I've lead groups in the past. Not overly interested unfortunately. If you're interested in selling let me know but you would know by this thread where my budget stands.

Group has been purchased.
