Thread: Dicey award - finally :D

HOMODIN - October 8, 2024, 8:11 am

I finally got the Dicey award, all it took was 1393 spins and yeah, I have been hungint for it for a while. I guess that I can now go back to actually saving up bytes for the next award, "Bytes bag" (30k bytes needed).

Bastille - October 8, 2024, 8:15 am

Congrats buddy, you got it quite fast, 1400 spins is not that much to be honest

Good luck for the bytes bag, I guess we'll see you active in the member contests section :p

What do you think about the Lounge Head award?

You might also want to aim for the Octoberfest 2024, especially since there are so many activities happening in the forum right now.

bronzegods - October 8, 2024, 9:05 am

Congratulations on the award. How much time did it take you?

Lounge head might work, not sure tho but yeah, should be easy enough now. But the Octoberfest 2024 is harder since it requires 30 threads too.

You can work it out bro, just 2 threads daily and maybe 25 to 30 postings daily and you'll have it on or before the end of the month.

I hope so, even tho the threads are going to be hard since I still want to keep it HQ and avoid facebook-styled threads :P

Mooooookie - October 9, 2024, 3:15 am

Congratulation on the Dice Award. I've always liked that one, haven't managed to get it myself.. but then again, I haven't put much work towards it yet. I've been focusing on Hack Game, which is going to take forever to get Level 50.. but I will get there eventually.

Cooligan - October 9, 2024, 4:04 pm

Ayy, congrats HOMODIN! Definitely got lucky with less than 1.5k spins.
