Happy hump day HF! We are all so close to the weekend. Today's quote of the day is by Oscar Wilde a famous Irish poet and playwright.

"Be yourself, everyone else is already taken".

It is important to be original and authentic. I see so many people worried about doing or saying what they think other people want, and that in itself is a mistake. Learn to have self love for who you are and what you can be. Knowing yourself can be life's greatest blessing.

I agree with that quote too; just be yourself and not a clone

That's a fantastic quote. Oscar Wilde really captured the essence of individuality. It's easy to fall into the trap of trying to meet other people's expectations, but true happiness comes from embracing who we are at our core. Self-love and authenticity are powerful, and when we fully accept ourselves, we stop comparing and start thriving. A great reminder to focus on our own journey and strengths.

It is indeed true... You should always strive to be creative without imitation as much as possible
