Thread: OctoberFest: Post your current progress!

Moookie - October 11, 2024, 10:44 pm

Today is October 12, 2024.. we're a little over the 1/3 mark to the end of OctoberFest. What's your current progress? Have you passed 50% yet? I'm currently at 67% - I didn't post anything last night after I checked in, so lost out on much posting. Tried to make up for it a little just now, but still got a ways to go. Keep up your current progress fellas.

Syndicate - October 11, 2024, 10:46 pm

Solid progress for where we are in the month honestly. Stay close to that pace and you'll get the award no doubt ?

That's what I'm gonna keep on doing! But I can't figure out what to do for threads to be honest ?. I want to do HQ threads but I don't have any ideas

Bastille - October 11, 2024, 11:22 pm

Not far from you ! I still need to find good ideas for threads, 30 is not easy to reach

Cap - October 11, 2024, 11:27 pm

I'm about 25% - so about a quarter of the way there. Progress is coming along!

Yanix - October 11, 2024, 11:44 pm

I am on my 80% currently and working it out going to 85% today, it's my goal to hit at least 5% before the end of the day.

DashPHP - October 11, 2024, 11:59 pm

I'm at 97% now. Not far to go!

Chrome - October 12, 2024, 12:05 am

Bit of a slower day, still plenty of time in the day though. I am sitting at 60% now.

Net - October 12, 2024, 12:45 am

Currently sitting at 9%. No rush, my plan is to slowly build up.

I'm trying! I must say, for my first year participating in this, I'm enjoying it. It's been a lot more difficult then I expected, but it's been a great experience. The part that I like about it the most, I've been able to meet and interact with multiple members that I've never spoke to in the past. OctoberFest opens the door for a lot of great interactions.

It has been really good - you're right. Plus the award will be well worth it.

Nice. Slow grinding it.. you're going at a good pace. It's the 13th.. you're at 46%, if you continue at this pace you will finish a few days before the month ends.

Daily 21-25 posts and one thread will get you the award in the last day.

I originally planned to do the contest like that, I told myself I would try and average 25 post and 1 thread a day.. and then I found out that people earned the award in 48 hours! That made me switch up my thinking.. because lets say something was to happen, and I got busy around the end of the month.. then I would be screwed, and wouldnt get the award. So better for me to try and get it now, never know what the future holds.

Yeah I'm not looking to get burnt out while doing it. About 10% per day should suffice.

A nice steady pace. I just noticed you have all 3 other pumpkins.. so you're no rookie at OctoberFest, you already know the best way to approach it without getting yourself burnt out.

Yeah I snagged all three of the previous ones. Definitely a solid approach to avoid burnout.

Yes, you're correct. That's is the safest way to avoid inevitable situations in the last minute. I too if I get free time I'll post more than what is the limit.
