Thread: Refactors Group Information and Recruitment

Chrome - October 14, 2024, 8:23 am

Upcoming changes

Refactor is in the process of undergoing some serious changes over the next few days or weeks. Whether I keep the branding or change the brand is yet to be decided. I will be hosting a brief, simple recruitment with the intention of inviting several new members to the group. In addition, I will host some threads to include the community in making some of these decisions about the group's future, because at the end of the day, it is the community that will benefit most from this group's restructuring. See below for some of the already confirmed changes about the group.

Group Concept

One thing that is definitive about the future direction of the group is it's concept. I have identified that two main things lacking in HF groups currently is community centered around gaming and personal life. Thus, these will be the two main focuses for the group. Each sector will have it's own leader, but all leaders will bounce off each other with ideas, and the group's structure is designed to be inclusive and collaborative.

Gaming

The gaming division will serve as a major part of the group and will be an inclusive segment that will bring the whole HF community together. There will be giveaways, prizes, competitions and tournaments. A lot of this will roll out before the Christmas period. We will also run member only competitions and tournaments as well. We would also love to host tournaments between groups. This would require some group owner cooperation and negotiation, which I believe could be very exciting!

It has not been confirmed yet which game titles will be the main focus of these competitions, but the future leaders of this group will play an integral role in deciding which games Refactor will be focusing on. More details are yet to come on who those leaders are.

Personal Life

The personal life sector will operate very similarly to an old SF that I used to run called Wallflowers which from memory was a very successful sector and gained a lot of notoriety and traction. There is a list of topics that this sector will cover. The below areas will be the group's main focus, but we may diverge into additional sub-forums as well, depending on activity.

Personal life topics:Innuendo

Vices

Health

Fitness

Current Requirements

No scammers, this means you must not have any active or unexplained deal disputes.

Must be active and post in sub-forums or discord.

Respect to other members. Flaming will not be tolerated.

Minimum account age is 3 months.

Application

There are no official application questions for this recruitment round. Instead, briefly describe what you can bring to the group and illustrate how you can help build a certain section. Let us know what topics out of what was discussed you think you will fit into and why. I will select adequate applications and send these members a request to join VIA PM if you have been accepted.

Good Luck everyone!

Confound - October 14, 2024, 8:24 am

Looking forward to seeing this group excel, and to the exciting future to come. I plan on heavily participating in the Personal life sector of this group, as that has been my forte on HF as of late.

Secrets - October 14, 2024, 8:52 am

I'm eager to witness and be involved in this journey. I'm intrigued and looking forward to seeing what emerges, knowing there are some incredibly talented individuals among us.

Purgatory - October 14, 2024, 9:09 am

I am really excited to see the future of this group! I love everyone in it and it is exciting to see people coming together for a common cause. I hope everything goes well and we keep this journey going!

What motivated you to pursue a hobby/career in Cyber Security, and what aspects of the field do you find most fascinating?

Was always into computers since I was young. The most fascinating things about it is how everything changes and can be changed over and over. There always different ways of thinking and figuring out what to do next!

What do you see as the future trends and challenges in this industry, and how do you believe the field will continue to evolve in the coming years?:

It will never die off and will be around forever.

Can you share some best practices or tips for individuals?:

Coding, learning new languages, learning new thing from old languages.

Have you been involved in any significant projects that you can share?:

[\[2024\] #1 EXPLOIT mLNKv5.2 - Bypass Windows Defender Runtime, AMSI, Smart Screen](#)
and many projects not listed on Hackforums.

I am part of Native-One Group and provide the marketing and support needed here on HF for products.

I'm very confused.

Best of luck with the group, I would like to see what you make out of it if you rebrand it.

StuffSneak - October 14, 2024, 12:17 pm

Would like to be part of a new group from start for sure. I'm huge in to gaming & of course can take part in personal life discussions.

Good luck to everyone & Cheers!

Astonished - October 14, 2024, 2:10 pm

I'd love to take part in this group should I be given the chance! Here's a bit about me.

I've been a gamer since I was 4, started off with an xbox and a Wii and moved on to PC. I've played everything from Shooters (COD Halo Counterstrike) to survival games (Rust DayZ Escape from Tarkov Minecraft) and even more. I'm relatively well skilled in most games I play actively being Counterstrike and Rainbow six siege but have a broad knowledge about a list of games that would be so extensive I wouldn't be able to remember them all. I have thousands upon thousands of hours put into gaming, perhaps more than I would like to admit. But I spent the last 10 years of my life gaming on a PC.

I firmly believe I would be a good addition to the gaming section of your group and could come up with some great ideas for engagement and giveaways/contests as well.

For the personal life sector, I have quite an experience with the topic of vices. Ranging from gambling to being a recovered drug addict of many years. I would be able to chip in here and there should any of these topics be brought up or discussed!

Currently I haven't been actively posting a lot, but I tend to focus on giving a quality post or reply then as many posts as I can.

Thanks for reading and good luck with everything to come!

We aren't really a sports focussed group, I mean we will allow almost any topic but it's not a big focus on the group.

Congratulations and best of luck as you move forward with the group. I am looking forward to seeing what you do with it.

Seaking - October 15, 2024, 9:23 am

Always good to see groups up and moving again. I'm looking forward to the gaming section!

Snowwy - October 15, 2024, 11:31 pm

Hi there! I am Snowwy!

I am really interested in joining Refactor for a multitude of reasons. I really like the idea of a gaming group and a group based on building different friendships with everyone within the group. I am an active user who is always looking at meeting new people, and whether that be gaming together or learning new things with each other or even just chatting about random day to day things.

I also would really love to become a member of Refactor as I have always wanted to be a member of a brand new group from the beginning. It would mean a lot and I would be proud to say I was in the group from the beginning of it's existence.

As I mentioned earlier, I am highly active on site and I believe I would be a great asset to the group. I enjoy gaming and everything related to gaming. I like to think I have a strong knowledge on gaming PC's and gaming consoles, which I believe I'll be able to always assist other members within the group with any questions they may have regarding these topics.

I also meet all the requirements that are set for the group and I always ensure I treat everyone on the site with respect when representing all my groups that I am apart of. I also ensure I always follow all site rules and procedures.

I appreciate you reading my application and I look forward to hopefully hearing back from you soon.

Still looking for some more members as we continue this rebrand.

Stanley - October 19, 2024, 12:38 am

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

That's a bummer. It has good branding and I would've liked to see the continuation of interest in cybersecurity and IaC output from the community.

Good luck with the refactor.

Still looking for some members as we get very close to the rebrand!

DanielZ - October 22, 2024, 10:04 pm

If you have available spots would love to join, because it's brand new group it makes it even more exciting since now we'll all get to know each other :)

HOMODIN - October 23, 2024, 1:18 am

Would be nice to be a part of this, been a gamer since the good old NES times and I still play games these days so might have a thing or two to share. One thing tho, the personal life section should/could also have a "relationship advice" section. Not sure if that would get traction but as long as it helps someone then I would see it as a win ?

Aurelius - October 23, 2024, 5:53 am i would love to be a part of this group i love the idea and the concept your bringing to the forum , i thought ur just thinking of buying the group i was confused for a minute and here we are XD , here is my application , best of luck on your recruitment .

SwimmingPool - October 23, 2024, 7:47 am

Would love to join. More interested in the personal life sf than the gaming. Only game I currently play is OSRS.
