Thread: What's Your Current Obsession? Share Your Latest Interests!

As the title states, what's your current obsession? Whether it's a song, movie, TV show or something else you're obsessed with?

Mine would have to be Game of Thrones. I'm on Season 8 episode 2. It's been such a great series to watch with my girlfriend and we both LOVE it so far. How about you?

Computers, and everything related to them (network, system, security, hacking, hardware, cpu architecture, electronic, programming, ...)

However, recently, I had more interest into black hat activities, methods, tools

TheGoldenRelik - October 15, 2024, 12:52 am

AI got into me in a lot of levels. It extends in mostly my work but also in very few things in personal

In tv shows i watch the walking dead, in games albion and some browser games, but i try collect some cash by online methods

UltraexTrader - October 15, 2024, 5:55 am

I'm currently obsessed with learning new skills and finding valuable information :)

The Pact - October 15, 2024, 6:12 am

I'm currently obsessed with writing a film script and wondering if I can make it into a movie with Ai. Also, I love using Ai to do things, but the Ai isn't writing the film script, but I used it to help when I was stuck on descriptions.

TooBurnt - October 15, 2024, 6:26 am

Currently obsessed with gambling

Epic - October 15, 2024, 6:41 am

Currently obsessed with computers (nothing newthere). I could also say HF, since coming back recently I've really been having a great time on the site.

TV/movie wise, I got pretty into the show "Lost" for a while. On season 5 or 6 I think, but I need to go back and finish it.

Eran - October 15, 2024, 7:46 am

My current obsession is self improvement.

Both to learn how to counteract and to use, I'm not into black hat activities but one day it could be useful, just in case

Yea dude, it's so good. I binged it pretty heavy for like a month and kiiiinda burned out. So I'm doing the same, switching to something else in the meantime and then I'll circle back to it and finish it up. The suspense in Lost is next level.

improvements have you noticed so far?

Nothing.

I've been on a downward spiral since mid July. Just now got some very helpful supplements, started journaling again and I am time-blocking my days. Literally nothing interests me anymore other than self improvement now.

Domestos - October 15, 2024, 10:37 am

Cyber security, refining social engineering skills, work, and spending money lol

What is time blocking exactly? I was curious about that before but I didn't ask for some reason Exactly! It happens so often to me and I have to switch it up but my gf gets pissy when we're watching 5 different shows at once ??

Self improvement is always a good idea. What improvements have you noticed so far?

It depends on what you ask. It's good to reduce or write content but (for know) it lacks of generalistic view on things
