Wow that's def the last place i'd think I hear about freddie dredd lol. Gives me so much nostalgia I used to listen to him a lot back in the days.

You should also check his old songs, it's a bit less dark than what he's doing now but I really like his old flow.

That's with this song I discovered him, enjoy :)

100%% Bro, that's the song that made me really fall into his style.

He's so underrated. But these days he's grown a lot, so good for him.

Yeah he gained some popularity a few years ago and I know some of his songs went viral on tiktok so it sure helped him a lot, as you said, good for him he deserved it , you gotta reward someone when he's got talent :)

This brings me back to my soundcloud era lmao
