Thread: What's your favorite comfort show?

What's your favorite comfort show to watch when you feel down or when you're always in the mood for? My girlfriend and I were talking about it and hers would be New Girl. Which I've come to really enjoy watching with her and I find it very funny.

My favorite show, is kind of silly but would be The Flash or Lucifer. I love watching them and I can at any point in time and be happy about it.

I often go with Supernatural (I'm watching the last season right now), and Mr.Robot (I've watched the whole series maybe 4 or 5 times I think)

I absolutely LOVE Supernatural, but I haven't finished it yet. I got to the last season and stopped watching. I have a huge problem with finishing TV series cause I never want the show to end ?

LooooooooL same, when the last season was released I was like : "Damn, I don't remember everything, I should probably watch the whole series again before watching the last season", so I started from S1 and I stoppped to S14 again for like a year haha, now I'm watching the S15 season but I started like more than 2 months ago

I've been planning on restarting it and watching it again but there's so many filler episodes that doesn't really link with the story ?

I watched every season of Survivor up until Season 41, but now I'm massively behind on it. I miss watching The Simpsons with the whole family back before my husband died and my youngest son had to move out.

Prison Break never disappointed me, you can watch it , get lost in your thoughts, and get back to the show still hyped about the twists , watched it like 6 times and everytime I enjoy it, and now it adds the nostalgia feeling to it hehe

That's not crazy far behind though, should only take a few weeks/months to catch up to it ?. I thought you were going to say you were like 20 seasons behind or something lmao

Recently I have been hooked on the FBI series. I watched every single season of the original FBI series and then now I am getting caught up on FBI: Most Wanted where I am currently nearing the end of season 4 with two more seasons to catch up on I think. I tend to watch one whole series at a time rather than watching multiple.

I've seen Prison Break as well! It's such a good show. I've watched it maybe 3 times in total. My sister is re-watching it currently with her husband. Michael's mind is absolutely crazy with details ?
