I bought the necessary to make a Billy halloween costume (it's the doll from Saw movies), I even got a big enough tricycle I can ride, it's 50% of the costume haha

The banana one will always stand out to me. So goofy.

Personally I've got a pick a scream mask with a black gown. Classic outfit, and I've always enjoyed the original movies as well.

I haven't actually worn a costume in quite a long time. When I was younger I would usually just go with a skeleton body suit because it was easy lol.

A terrifying ghost or zombie. Use fake blood and ripped clothes to keep everyone scared the entire night.
